

Computer Lab Rules

Behavior

Equipment

Actions

No shouting to people in other rows	Keep your legs off the computers	No video games except the TypingWeb games, but only when I say it's OK. That does not mean you start playing them at the beginning of class.
No profanity	Don't touch the computer screens	Raise your hand to get my attention.
If I see your phone, I'll take it, unless I say it's OK to use depending on what we are doing.	Do not be rough or grab at the equipment in a way that might cause damage.	No eating, including outside the door before class starts.
When I'm talking and giving instructions, please don't talk.	Don't roll around the lab with your chairs it stretches the carpet and you could fall, it happens	No gum chewing
Don't ask to use the bathroom every day. If I notice this trend, I'll start saying no.	Do not spin in the chairs.	No texting
If I find candy wrappers, chip bags, etc, you will be expected to clean up the mess and get a detention. Don't sneak food, if I catch you I'll take it and throw it away.	Be very careful when moving around the computers, they're on the ground and it's possible for them to get knocked over.	No putting on makeup in class
Try to get here earlier than you would for other classes. The classroom conversation starts early or there will be something to entertain you.	Make sure your fingers are clean before you touch the keyboard. Use the hand sanitizer before the tardy bell rings.	Ask to use the bathroom at the appropriate time, or I'll say no. If you discuss it further you will earn a detention. I'll let you go when the time is available.
		Be in your seat and quiet when the tardy bell rings
		Don't write on the white board
		No hanging out in front of class before bell rings.
		No underwear showing, includes shorts as underwear.
